

Palazzo Libraro is a place full of character and mystery, a unique location in the authentic heart of Rome.

At the foothill of the Gianicolo, in Rome's full Historical Center, a little corner of the city awaits to be unveiled and loved. Big spaces and versatility, allow the palace to represent an ideal holiday-home both for families and small friends' groups. The estate is placed only 14 minutes walking from Saint Peter's Basilica, Piazza Navona and Campo dei Fiori squares.

The property - developed in two levels - has four double rooms all with en-suite bathroom and 2 sofa-beds.

At the ground floor there is an astonishing music hall of 170 sqm with a perfectly working Yamaha Piano, a sixteen eater briar-root dining table and a ceiling six meters high, a kitchen fully equipped and 2 double rooms.

At the first floor, there's a kitchenette, a suite and a double bedroom.

The property is enriched with original 1600 paintings on the walls and a listed and fully restored 1600 grotto of Vanvitelli school.

The ambiances are equipped with full air conditioned.
