

The history: an aristocratic family of Marche, a sincere passion for the land and a steady commitment to the best cultivation techniques, as well as high quality standards for wine-production.

The location: a place of absolute beauty and charm. Enter through the main gate to discover its perfectly manicured lawns, expanses of vines, boxwood hedges, carefully placed flowers, stark white paths, snow-capped mountains in the distance, and an ideal blend of classic statues and sculptures created by contemporary artists, and drawing on Master of the House's passion for art.

WINE GAME PROPOSAL:

A very friendly and extremely interesting and engaging team building. Participants, divided into teams, will be involved in a wine tasting / lesson where they will enjoy, take notes and express opinions. The experiential part will end with a very funny "wine game" between puzzles and skill tests about the "nectar of the Gods"!

Duration: 3/4 hours

Participants: from 15 to 20

RELATED ITINERARIES PROPOSAL:

- guided tour of the historic wine cellar and the majestic estate;
- escorted tour of the Fiastra Abbey in Chiaravalle - one of the best preserved Cistercian abbeys in Italy - a real jewel of Romanesque architecture among a gentle countryside crossed by long paths for relaxing walks.
