

Tuscia Apartments propose self-catering accommodation in Barbarano Romano, just 60 km far from Rome.

Situated on a volcanic outcrop, Barbarano Romano is bordered on two sides by a cliff and on a third, by XV century walls. The area offers many cultural and natural experiences, linked to the presence of a wide archaeological area along with the beautiful Marturanum Park, which includes ancient tombs and lush vegetation.

The house - composed by two apartments - is located within the historic center of the village. All the classic-style apartments feature a TV and a kitchen with microwave.

GROUND FLOOR:

Two double bedrooms, two living rooms with fireplace, one kitchen and three bathrooms with shower.

FIRST FLOOR:

Two double bedrooms, living room, kitchen and bathroom with shower.

The two apartments are connected by an internal staircase, but they can be rent also separately thanks to an external staircase and an internal door which divides the two apartments.

Free Wi-Fi access is available in all areas.

EXTERIORS:

The fenced garden is equipped with dining table, chairs, barbecue and tennis table.

Close to the house there are a bank, a pharmacy, a grocery, a cafe and a tobacco shop.

The village hosts a Museum with Etruscan evidences.

The closest motorway is A12 - exit Monte Romano - 24 km from the House.
