

Villa Marciano is an old peasant farmhouse close to the village of Marciano della Chiana.

Situated on the slopes of the hill which from the medieval village of Marciano della Chiana goes gently down towards the plain below, this is the ideal place for those who still manage to switch off and want to forget the deafening noise and frenetic pace of modern life.

Valdichiana's landscape, fenced pool and cozy furnishing. From the house and front garden you can admire the harmonious view of the fertile and immense Valley of the Chiana, enclosed on the horizon by the mountain ridges of the Apennines. All around the house a large garden equipped with gazebo, garden furniture, barbecue and shaded by old oak trees, olive trees and other tall trees. On one side of the garden there is a beautiful, completely fenced swimming pool, where guests can spend pleasant days in the hot summer sun, regenerating body and mind. The house has been furnished with period furniture and is very comfortable.
