Villa Narnia is a wedding villa venue ideal for country weddings.

The villa is located on the top of a hill, with a breathtaking view of Narni, which has preserved its medieval appearance, with stone buildings and narrow cobblestone streets. This city, placed in the Southern of Umbria Region – mostly off the tourist path – offers a number of interesting sights, especially if you like mysterious and somewhat haunting sites.

This wedding venue is composed of reception room, wedding suite, a lush private garden and olive grove of four hectares, a huge swimming pool and a parking car.

For guests, an affiliated hotel with 34 bedrooms is located just 2 km far from the villa. During the day, guests can stay together into the villa and relaxing in the solarium or in the large swimming pool.

There are 2 ways to reach the swimming pool:
– from the villa, through a pleasant path with staircase;
– from the exterior of the property, trough a street lined with olive trees.

Children can play safely in the large exteriors while adults relax: the park is completely fenced, including trees, fruit trees and olive trees, away from the street, allowing guests to enjoy total privacy and peaceful.

In the park there are also a refined Deruta round dining table, small tables in the little square in front to the villa and a relax area under 2 centuries-old oaks.

During the stay before and after the wedding banqueting, there are plenty of initiatives to experience: walks in the woods, mountain bikes, wine tastings and cooking courses are some of the activities the bride & groom can enjoy at the venue with their family and friends.

Villa Narnia is a romantic and perfect setting for a wedding venue in Umbria: a location where a mix of simplicity and elegance, gives the opportunity to realize a perfect green country style wedding. Among the olive trees, the villa not only benefits from an excellent position but also allows guest to enjoy a remarkable skyline typical of the gently Umbrian countryside.

The closest motorway is A1 – exit Orte – 20 km from the Villa.
