Refined and exclusive environments, simple and innate elegance in the middle of the peaceful countryside of the Marche. A charming setting for weddings and private events.

The villa is built on an ancient monastery of Franciscan friars between the XVII and XVIII century, then, from the beginning of last century, the current owners restructured all the building, including the beautiful little church, making functional and architectonically value modifies that give the right tribute to the remarkable historical importance.
The Villa is located in a panoramic position and is completely immersed in the verdant hills of Macerata, with a breathtaking lookout on the Adriatic sea, the loveliness of the country, the Sibillini Mountains and the beauty of the vineyard, grown-up like a garden all around the Villa.
The vineyards are spread over thirteen hectares whose soil is characterized by argillaceous limestone particularly suited for the production of an extremely high quality and healthy product.
The Villa is situated close to the coast of region Marche and Macerata's city. Macerata is full of history and art, famous for its exclusive and very seeked character.
